FUTURE sentence + past tense = I will explain where I went...

Introduction:

I like to go many different places depending on my mood. However, I'm going to tell you a special place which is the most attractive in my country. I will explain where it is and how I went there. I will try and describe what it looks like and explain why I like the location so much.

a. Where is this place?

I have several amazing places where I intend to visit such as Sylhet, Khulna, Cox'sBazar and so on. Among them, Cox'sbazar which has the longest sea beach in the world is one my most attractive places in my eyes or at least as good as others. Cox'sbazar is the southern part of Bangladesh. It's 200 kilometers away from the main division.

Mr. Habibullah who is from Sylhet is an IELTS Candidate.

C. When and how did you go there?

- Actually, I went there on September 2nd, 2021 with some of my colleagues. To go there, I required to purchase advanced air ticket prior to the departure, the air fare was 4300 taka which was really reasonable. But mostly I go there by bus. The bus journey takes around 6 to 7 hours and the air journey takes only 40 to 50 minutes.

B. Why do you/did you prefer this place?

WHY ARE YOU HERE?

- I want to know why you are here.
- Now I am going to explain why I do prefer this place. Firstly, cox'sbazar is not only famous for the sea beach but also renowned for its apex hills. The sound of sea waves charms me a lot.
- Secondly, the sea food is really delicious and you know Sea food contains vitamin D.
- Thirdly, the whole environment is so cool which helps me to reduce anxiety and stress. Moreover, the people of this area are really easy-going, hospitable and generous.

Imaginary something:

- As far as I could vividly remember, when we went cox'sbazar last time, suddenly we found a one-legged-person while we were enjoying the sea roar in the afternoon. He asked for food from us, then we brought him to a restaurant and fed him as far as he could. He was so happy that he could not express. I have never seen such a happiest person in my life.

Law + Object

Describe a traffic rule or Law you know about...

You should say:

- a. What is it?
- b. How did you know about it?
- c. Whether you follow this rule or not?

Introduction:

Laws are always made for human benefits. I am neither a law expert nor I have sufficient knowledge regarding this. But I like to believe for sure that each and every country in the world has its own set of traffic laws to maintain the order and discipline on their roads. From my point of view, traffic rule is one of the most crucial/significant laws in a country or at least as good as others.

- a. What is it?

The law, I am talking about, is a law/ that allows the traffic authority to punish a drunk driver/ by suspending his driving license for a long period of time and then putting him into prison for 2 years. In addition to these punishments, the authority is also allowed to issue a fine of hefty amount of money.

b. How did you know about it?

Now I am going to explain how I knew about this special law.
The answer is that I had to learn this law in order to get a driving license after passing the written test together with a road test.

c. Whether you follow this rule or not?

- I always abide by all the laws. But to be honest, very few times I drive over the speed limit when roads are almost empty. I am afraid I might be fined for this. It's really difficult to accept strict laws for anyone when fines or punishments are imposed (=আরোপিত) on himself or herself.

Imaginary something:

As far as I could vividly remember, some days ago, my neighbor Mr. Abdullah who is very naïve person was fined 50,000 taka because of expiring his driving license only for 2 days. Since it was the time of covid-19, he could not renew his license. The amount was hefty and the government should balance between penalty and occurrence albeit is a debatable issue.

Albeit = although = যদিও

Describe an object you own that is important.

(piece of jewelry, laptop, mobile phone, oven, watch etc.)

1. What is it?
2. Who gave it to you?
3. Why do you think that is useful? -

গ্রামার – tense, simple/complex/compound, voice, right form of verbs, preposition (phrase & group verb)

university, entertainment, job search, social media,

What is it + Introduction:

I have some attractive items such as laptop, mobile phone, oven, watch, furniture and so on. Among them, my laptop is one of the most precious items in my daily life or at least as good as others.

2. Who gave it to you?

Now I am going to explain how I got this item. To be honest, when I got chance in my dreamt institution named Dhaka University, my mom surprisingly gave me this outstanding product as a gift. When I brought it to my university, almost every of my friends informed me that the laptop was really splendid and its price was about eighty thousand taka.

3. Why do you think that is useful?

- My day begins with this laptop. I cannot think of a single day without it. First of all, I do complete my university homework or assignment through this laptop. Sometimes, we arrange a zoom meeting with my group members to complete our assignment. Secondly, I utilize laptop not only for educational purposes but also for entertainment. Furthermore, I do check my email for the sake of getting a part-time job for which I have applied. The thing, I am talking about, the laptop is a really convenient and movable gadget that's why I can bring it to my class every day. For instance, few days ago I was watching a movie named 3 idiots while I was taking rest.

Imaginary something if you have time:

As far as I could vividly remember, once upon a time I had just returned from the class and I had really a crucial task at that moment but suddenly I found my laptop disturbed. Then I called my friend who was a software engineer to discuss regarding this problem. He laughed at hearing my problem and replied that I am not a quack, I am a software engineer so you should go to a repairing center.
